ASKED THE QUESTION
“WHAT DID I DO WRONG?”

GOD MADE ME SPECIAL I'M GAY

Genesis 1:27. "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God He created them, male and female He created them."

Psalm 139:13 "For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb."

God knows exactly who we are and where we are in our lives. The Lord chose the time and place of birth for each of us. He created each of us based on the role He has for us in His plan for the World, Countries, Cities, Communities and our lives. And it is a good plan.

Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

In His creation of each of us He gave us talents and skills based on His plan for us. Don't know what He gave you? I will bet you do.

What are you good at? What comes naturally, is easy for you?

What do you enjoy, gives you the most satisfaction?

What are you passionate about?

Some build things with their hands and strength and others work with their mind inventing new products or processes, others paint or draw incredible pictures and still others prepare fabulous looking and tasting food, the list seems endless. But, one thing is consistent about all these gifts, whether the people realize it or not, God planned for their skills and He is using them. God knows every one of us right down to our core and soul.

GAY IS NOT HOMOSEXUAL

Do not let the world define you.

In Webster's Gay is defined as "happily excited; keenly alive and exuberant; having or inducing high spirit".

In Webster's Homosexual is defined as "... of, relating to, or involving sexual activity between persons of the same sex".

By this definition I am Gay, but I am not Homosexual. God has given me a good life. I know who I am, I comfortable in my own skin. And you know what the best part is? God has given me a role in His plan to tell you that He created you, He knows who you are, He loves you and He has prepared a role in His plan for you. I can think of nothing more exciting and fulfilling than that. Yes, I am very Gay, but I am not Homosexual.

Who are you as person, as an individual? Does who you are intimate with define you? You need to know what your internal God "selfie" is. What are you really good at? What is in your heart? What are your gifts? Are you using them? If you do and you are, you are likely gay just as I am. If you are not and you do not know the answers to these questions, then you are probably not gay, you are probably unhappy and unfulfilled.

In addition to our skills God has also implanted in all of us, some to men and some to women, the different aspects of His personality. Strength, compassion, understanding, wisdom, patience, forgiveness... each selected for our unique roles in the world God designed for us. To combine all His characteristics, He joined them man and woman (Mark 10:8) "two shall become one flesh." So, they are no longer two but one in the spirit combining all the characteristics of God so together they would have all the skills needed to provide for and manage all the circumstances of our lives and families. They must go through the process to become complete, you don't, you have His Gift of Completeness.

THE GIFT

The Lord's Gift to each of you at your birth is Completeness. Within you are all aspects of God's characteristics and personality. Within you are both the male and female attributes you need. This was done so each of you would be prepared for the roles and tasks He has for you to accomplish.

Unlike the rest of us you do not have to join with our opposite, man or woman, to become Complete.

But you don't feel Perfect and Complete, do you? That is because since you first felt "different", like you did not fit in and asked, "Why?", you have listened to the world and asked the wrong people. Not your fault really, you didn't have many choices and no one who had the right answer. Not really their fault either. Doctors, psychologists, researchers only looked to their science for answers and the answer is not there.

Doctors have given many the most complete physicals but could not find thing physically wrong. The good thing is that you know you are healthy.

Psychologists could only tell you that you must have grown up with overly dominant, abusive mothers or fathers, you were physically, verbally, sexually abused or propose another psychological/sociological theory.

For some this could be true but it does not explain all those who grew up in "normal" homes with loving parents and family who are now living a gay lifestyle. It also doesn't explain those who grew up in a negative environment who are not.

Then there are the Genetic researchers, those that have told you that it is probably a DNA problem, that there must be an anomaly in your gene structure. These researchers have mapped our whole DNA structure and have found nothing to support this theory.

What is true is that it does not occur to any of them that God made you exactly the way you are. That He created you special for a purpose that does not require "pairing up" to accomplish it.

It occurs to no one that God gave you the gift of "Completeness". You already possess all the characteristics of the Lord you need to be You.

Now you understand that you are exactly who you are supposed to be and The Gift, Completeness, that God has given you. You are Perfect.

You are exactly who God created you to be. The Lord plans everything down to the smallest detail and you are no different. Look at the world around you, not at what man has built, but at what He created, it's a perfect design for a purpose. Everything in the universe and on Earth is in balance.

Have you asked, while you are scratching that bite on your arm, "God why do we need those damn mosquitoes"? If you did, and listened for the answer, you would hear "Chocolate". The yield of a cocoa tree depends much more on how many blossoms are pollinated by mosquitoes than its supply of water, light, and nitrogen, if we have no mosquitoes,

NO CHOCOLATE.

That's the reason they are here, that's His level of detail.

The point is that if The Lord pays that much attention to a plant's and an insect's role in His creation, how much greater attention to detail do you think He paid when creating someone in His own image, YOU.

No physician or procedure, no cosmetic look or no injection can improve on God's creation. You are perfect when you are born, perfect as you grow up and perfect on you last day when God calls you home. If you are told different it is a lie trying to keep from becoming who God created you to be.

Genesis 1:27 "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created them, male and female He created them."

You are the image of the Lord God. Not just physically but in every aspect of His spirit and character. Please, stop and think about that. He made you exactly what you are, exactly the way you are and exactly who you are down to the smallest detail for His purpose. You have all the characteristics of God's personality and character that you will need to successfully accomplish His plan for your life.

If you accept as fact that God created you to be exactly who you are. If you accept the Gift of Completeness that He has given you. If you sincerely embrace the life He has for you, you have taken the first step toward a personal, intimate relationship with the Lord God Almighty and the Lord is smiling, happy and there is a celebration in Heaven. Awesome!

Now that you have a different point of view from which to look at your life you don't have to accept the worldly voices or churchy opinions of the life you live.

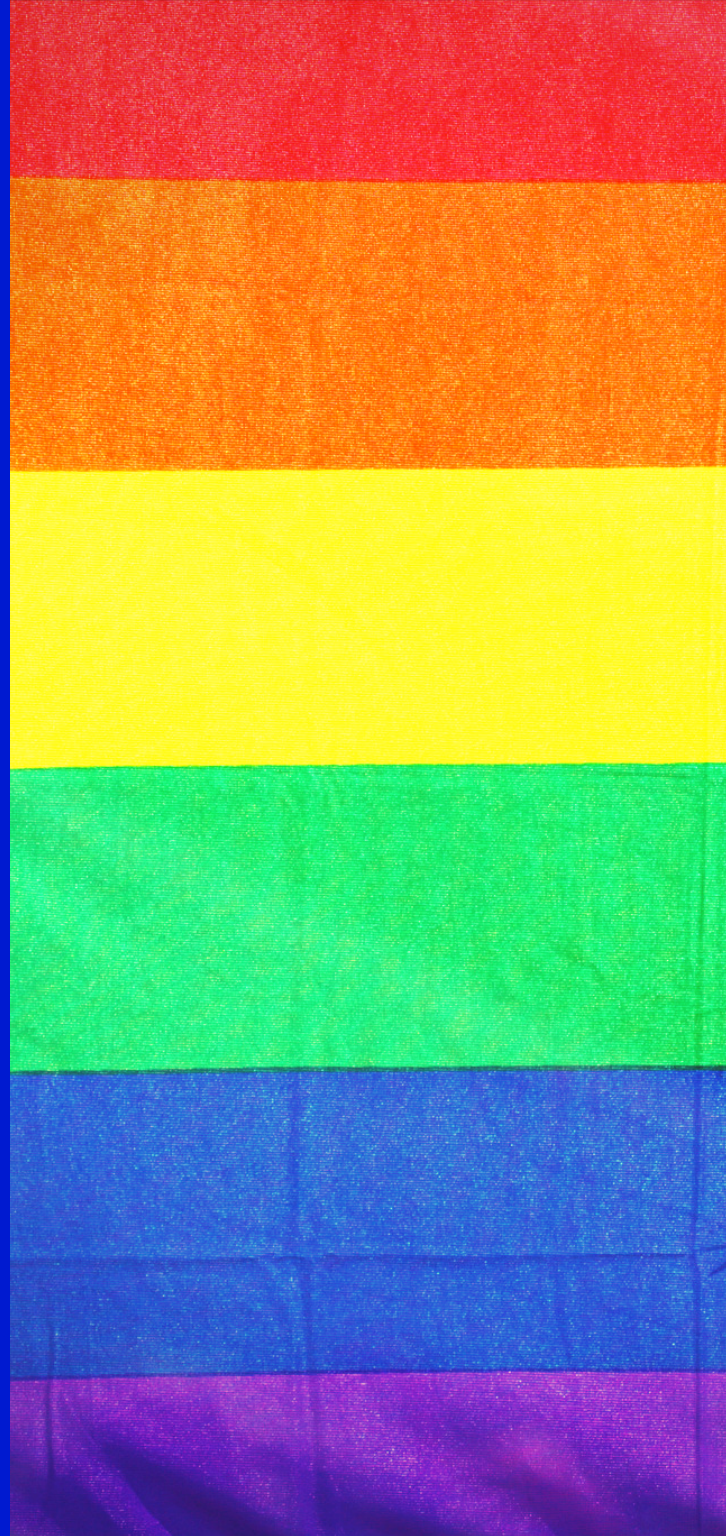

You are not an abomination because you don't live the life of the "normal" 90% of the population. There is nothing wrong with you because you don't have burning need to be "in relationship" with someone. No more frustration, no more questions, no more self-doubt. You are not alone, you already are "one" with the Lord, He is with you always and He wants a very personal relationship with YOU!

Please also realize that you may not need to radically change your life. You may be living the life God has planned for you at this point and He is waiting you to accept his Gift. Once you have made your decision to accept it, some significant, may to need made to put your life in line with what the Lord requires to move deeper into the life He has planned for you.

If you are currently in a same sex, intimate, physical relationship this is unacceptable to the Lord. He feels the same way about it as a relationship between a man and woman outside of marriage, you are no more sinful than they are, all sin is sin. This may be the only part of your life and relationships that you will need to change. You do not have to decide to end a relationship that must be very important to you or you would not be in it. You only need to decide what the relationship is based on.

If the most important aspect of the relationship is physical pleasure, how valuable is it to you as a whole person? On the other hand, if the relationship is based on mutual respect, support, best friends doing life together, that is very different. How great is a hug from that person, a soft reassuring hand on your shoulder during a trying time, and you love each other, that is not sexual, that is of God. A decision will have to be made between both of you on the physical aspect of the relationship.

The Lord requires obedience to receive His blessings. Your choice, He has offered you the Gift but he will not force it on you. God is waiting. Jeremiah 29:11 "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."
Do you want His plan for your life or your plan?

I know a man who is aware of the gifts God has given him as an actor. At 17 years of age he auditioned with several thousand people for one of 8 to 10 positions at The American Academy of Dramatic Arts in Southern California and, to no surprise to those who know him well, he was selected.

It was difficult, a real test to see if you had the natural talent and work ethic to have your name listed with the greats on the stage and in film that graduated from The American Academy of Dramatic Arts like Kirk Douglas or Lauren Bacall, Robert Redford or Grace Kelly.

Once onsite and in classes he worked very hard was told that harder than winning a place in the first semester was being offered the opportunity to return for the second semester. Guess what, again no surprise to those who know him well, he was offered a 2nd semester. But he chose to go home, why?

He did not have the confidence that comes from knowing that God had made him who he was and the Lord had put in him all he needed to be successful. All he knew for many years, from a young age, that he was different than most around him. He let the world define him, not God.

As a young man the World around him kept telling him he should want to be in relationship with someone. But he, like many of you, didn't feel that, he also did not want to be different. He wanted to be like everyone else, to fit in somewhere. This created great emotional, internal conflict and lack of self confidence. He has tried a number of relationships with women and men but all were unfulfilling and ended in frustration.

Sound familiar?

This man has spent years and a lot of money on doctors, psychologists and therapists, but found no answers and no peace. No one had the answers, because no one pointed him to God.

He has found his way through life. He is now in a mutually healthy, positive, supportive relationship with a man. They are now married and there is now stability in the life they share but only until recently has the Lord been a significant part of his daily life.

For last 2 years health issues began to manifest themselves growing more significant with each passing month. Again, he went to doctors but no one could diagnose the cause.

That was until recently.

How many of you are still unhappy and unfulfilled?

Do you want to change your life? Your future?

The solution is simple, sincerely accept the Lord's Gift of Completeness. He is waiting for you with open arms and His Gift no matter how far or from where you have come.

He loves you, all you need to do is turn to Him, leave the world's past behind you and take hold of His future for you.

God's plan for you has another Gift for all who are willing to accept it, Eternal Life. All of us on this earth have fallen short of the perfection the Lord requires to receive eternal life with Him here on earth today and in Heaven. It began with Adam and Eve when they chose their own plan not God's defying very simple, but specific instructions from Him. Ever since that day each of us have continued to make the same choice, our way not God's way dooming us eternal separation from the Lord. That is hell.

Because God knows us so well He has always had our own personal plan B. It is His son, Jesus, was sent in human form to grow up like all the rest of us, face all the same temptations, develop a trade, work in the family business, until at age around age 30. Jesus then knowingly accepted His Father's plan to erase our sins from God's memory.
Do you want this Gift of Eternal Life?

Many believe that you receive Eternal Life when you die, not true. You can receive right now. The moment you accept Jesus as your personal savior, that He sacrificed Himself, died, and after 3 days was resurrected, you begin your Eternal Life. You will live forever with God here on earth now and in Heaven when you die.

To accept this gift of Salvation you simply pray the Sinners Prayer below. Don't just read it, you need to pray it sincerely with your heart and your mind.

Lord Jesus, for too long I've kept you out of my life. I know that I am a sinner and that I cannot save myself. No longer will I close the door when I hear you knocking. By faith I gratefully receive your gift of salvation. I am ready to trust you as my Lord and Savior. Thank you, Lord Jesus, for coming to earth. I believe you are the Son of God who died on the cross for my sins and rose from the dead on the third day. Thank you for bearing my sins and giving me the gift of eternal life. I believe your words are true. Come into my heart, Lord Jesus, and be my Savior. Amen.

Welcome to the God's family! Remember, this place has always been yours, you just needed to accept the Gifts God has been offering you.

Welcome Home!
